Collaboration for Innovation and STEM Education across Tennessee

Basic Research

Innovation

Applied Development

Translation

Commercialization

Integration of STEM learning and innovation themes across state institutions expands opportunities for successful collaborations.

Greater capacity to obtain funding for research improves innovation outcomes.

Collaboration with industry increases translation and commercialization potential.

Student research promotes knowledge creation and career development.

Pre-College Engagement

Education

Undergraduate Research & Internships

Experiential Learning

Graduate Studies

