FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Panel Discussion on China Trade Financing, Tax, and Currency Considerations
November 9 in Knoxville

Knoxville, TN – October 28, 2015 -- TN-China Network and U.S. Bank will jointly host a panel discussion event on Business with China: Trade Financing, Tax, and Currency Considerations, on Monday, November 9, 2015, 5:30 – 7:30 pm at the Museum of East Tennessee History, 601 South Gay Street, Knoxville, TN. Complimentary hors d'oeuvres and cocktails will be provided.

At the event, supporting event sponsor Baker Donelson law firm will moderate a panel discussion on various trade financing, tax, and currency considerations that companies face when exporting to, importing from, or investing in China. The esteemed panelists include:

- U.S. Bank's International Group, providing an overview of the evolution of China's currency and how companies can manage currency risk;
- Deloitte Tax LLP, presenting on major tax considerations companies face when doing business with China;
- Small Business Administration (SBA), outlining SBA loan products that support international trade; and
- Radio Systems Corporation, describing their China sales and sourcing operations, highlighting practical trade financing, tax, and currency issues they have faced.

“This event provides a unique opportunity for East Tennessee companies to learn directly from China experts about trade financing, tax, and currency issues crucial to business success in China, as well as to learn from the on-the-ground China experiences of one of Knoxville's most prominent international businesses,” says Elizabeth Rowland, Executive Director of TN-China Network.

Registration and networking will begin at 5:30 pm. The panel discussion will kick off at 5:45 pm with brief presentations by each panelist, followed by moderated Q&A and discussion among the panelists and event attendees.
