

Launch Tennessee Announces Selected Cities and Partners for 36|86's The Southern Series

Nashville, Tenn., Feb. 5, 2016 - Launch Tennessee (LaunchTN) announces today the three cities and partner selections for its second annual 36|86 Southern Series.

- April 6, 2016 - Birmingham, AL | Partners: Innovation Depot and Harbert Ventures
- April 12, 2016 - Atlanta, GA | Partners: Valor Ventures
- April 19, 2016 - Raleigh, NC | Partners: CED and Bull City Venture Partners

Each event provides an opportunity for regional startup celebration and identification of the very best emerging entrepreneurs in the Southeast. Ten startups will be selected to pitch at each stop on The Southern Series. One startup per city will win a travel and lodging stipend to come pitch at LaunchTN's 36|86 conference in Nashville in June. Over 1,000 startup enthusiasts and 200 investors attended last year's event. Southern Series local winners compete in Nashville with the region's top rising entrepreneurs for the opportunity to win cash award of $50,000.

"We are seeking the top southeastern entrepreneurs, pure and simple," says LaunchTN CEO Charlie Brock. "The Southern Series winners coming to 36|86 will experience the center of southern entrepreneurship and culture, receiving opportunities to network with seasoned entrepreneurs, investors from across the country and national media representatives."
