NASHVILLE (July 29, 2019) – Bunker Labs’ Annual Muster Across America Tour will land in Nashville on August 8 at the Nashville Public Library. The experience, part of the Muster Across America Tour presented by JPMorgan Chase & Co., will bring together over 300 veterans, entrepreneurs and investors, uplift the local entrepreneurial ecosystem and foster growth, knowledge and success. Bunker Labs is a national non-profit that seeks to empower veterans and veteran spouses to start their own business by providing them proper training, resources, and connections.

“We’re proud to join Bunker Labs on the Nashville stop of this Muster Tour - an excellent showcase for veteran entrepreneurs,” says Brad Bowlin, a Navy Vet and market leader for JPMorgan Chase in Nashville. “Together, we’ll help veteran entrepreneurs reach their potential as successful business owners. Bunker Labs uniquely harnesses this potential with innovative resources tailored to the needs of veterans.”

The Nashville Muster is open to the public and will include speakers, breakout sessions, networking, a pitch competition sponsored by the Ford Fund featuring nine of Nashville’s veteran entrepreneurs from the WeWork Veterans in Residence Program powered by Bunker Labs, and a fireside chat from JPMorgan Chase Chairman and CEO, Jamie Dimon. “Veterans come from a proving ground like no other. They are poised to take the reins as entrepreneurs and to continue to serve the nation,” said Blake Hogan, Chief Growth Officer for Bunker Labs. “Our job at Bunker Labs is to engineer the environment for entrepreneurs to be inspired, equipped, and connected. The Muster, is designed to do just that.”
