

KNOXVILLE SCIPRENEUR CHALLENGE

Sponsorship Prospectus Fall 2019

The inaugural Knoxville Scipreneur Challenge (KSC) is an entrepreneurial initiative of Life Science Tennessee's East Tennessee Academic Alliance in collaboration with University of Tennessee and Oak Ridge National Laboratory (ORNL). KSC will be a training outreach program that will showcase the intellectual properties (IPs) being generated at Knoxville's premier research institutions, facilitate dialogue and partnerships between the academic and business communities and provide entrepreneurship training to students and postdoctoral fellows.
